Summary Report

ADC-2101: ECG-Reading between the lines

The "ECG Reading between the Lines" course, held over five days, provided a comprehensive training program for medical postgraduates and interns, aimed at enhancing their ECG interpretation skills. Led by Dr. Rambabu, Professor of General Medicine, and Dr. Krishna Chaithanya, Associate Professor of General Medicine, the course included lectures on the principles of electrocardiography, in-depth waveform analysis, and identification of common arrhythmias and pathologies. Hands-on workshops focused on ECG equipment setup, interpretation, and differential diagnosis, while interactive case discussions and simulated clinical scenarios offered practical application of knowledge. Participants presented complex ECG cases, engaged in role-playing sessions, and underwent a final assessment to test their skills. The course received high satisfaction ratings, with attendees appreciating the expert guidance and real-life case discussions. Overall, the event successfully equipped participants with the ability to accurately interpret ECGs and apply this knowledge in clinical practice, underscoring the teaching effectiveness of the faculty and the course's comprehensive curriculum.

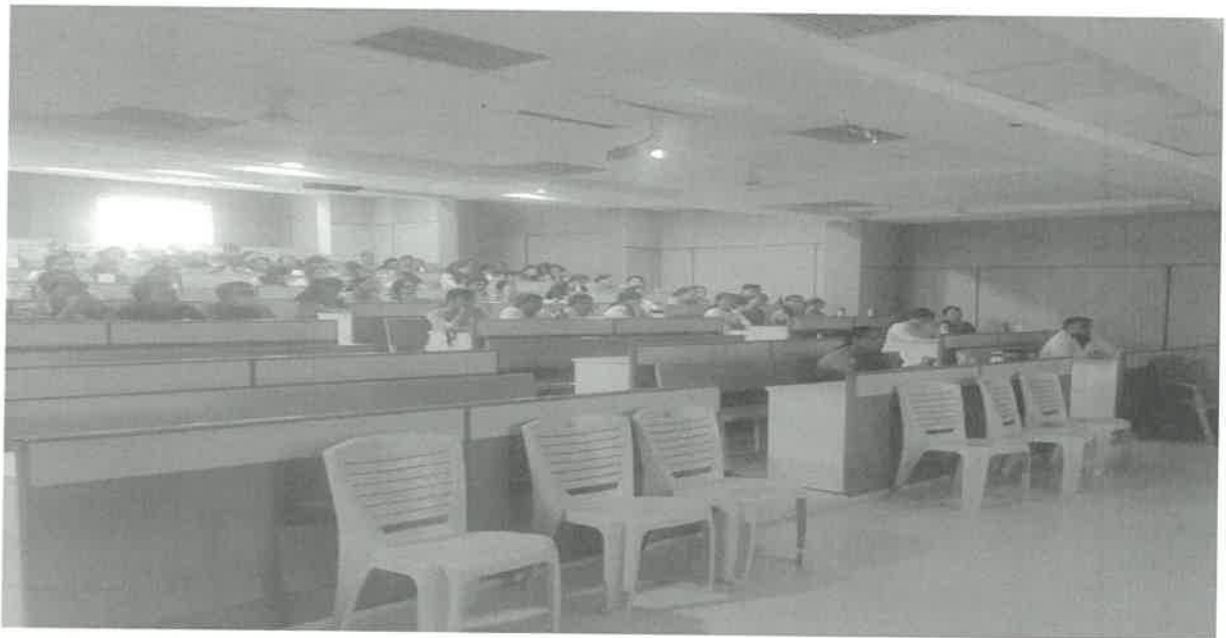

The Program was conducted on 21.6.2021 to 25.6.2021 at Lecture Hall, Ground Floor, Academic Block, MRIMS, Hyderabad for 80 students of II yr post graduates for 31 hours
