Summary Report

VM01: Communication Skills

This introductory course lays the groundwork for medical students to understand the importance of effective communication in healthcare and introduces them to basic communication principles and techniques. It aims at sensitizing and orienting the students regarding the power of good communication in medicine, the ways to improve communication skills and preparedness to deal with different scenarios. This course emphasizes the need for a good communication with patients, maximizing patient satisfaction and minimizing societal misunderstanding and unrest.

Dr. Khaleel, Professor of Microbiology and MEU Coordinator of Mahavir Medical College was the key resource person who with his expertise in medical education, including a degree in Advanced Course in Medical Education under his belt is also well acclaimed as a great speaker, who was the right choice for this topic. He was supported by our esteemed faculty as resource persons- Dr. Ramani, who is the Academic Dean along with being a medical education enthusiast and Dr. Jamuna Rani, the present MEU Coordinator of MRIMS.

The program was conducted from 24th October 2018 to 26th October 2018 to a total of 75 medical students who were enrolled into the course.
