Summary Report

VM11: Professionalism

Professionalism is the attributes, behaviors, commitments, values, and goals that characterize a profession. In medical professional, it encompasses strong societal role and involves emotional component too. Professionalism also involves relationships and interactions between all those involved in medical education and the delivery of patient care including physicians, students, administrators, and allied health professionals. The course is designed in such a way that students will learn the ability to practice awareness and self-reflection for lifelong personal as well as professional development and will be able to balance professional and personal life. The key speaker for the course was Dr M Ramani, Academic Dean who has taken several workshops on professionalism for medical students. She has vast knowledge and experience in the field of professionalism and course was well supported by Dr Jamuna Rani, MEU Coordinator, MRIMS who teaches professionalism very well with her knowledge and experience

The program was conducted on 18.2.20 to 20.2.20 at Lecture Hall, Ground Floor, academic Block, MRIMS for 85 Interns (2014 Batch) for 15 hours
