

Celebration of Worlds AIDS Day: 1st December 2015; Day 1

Date: 01-12-2015

No. of Participants: 300

Venue: St. Martin's Engineering College, Dhulapally

Time: 11:00 am

Theme: Getting to zero: zero new HIV infections, zero discrimination, zero AIDS related deaths.

The Department of Community Medicine of MRIMS observed world AIDS day on 1st Dec 2015 at St. Martin's Engineering College, Dhulapally. Only 1st year B. Tech Mechanical students participated. The session was started by Dean of MRIMS, Dr. V. V. Sastry and Dr. Chandrakanth Shirole with a brief introduction on how HIV is transmitted by Sexual route and blood transfusion and how it can be prevented. Dr. Pooja Chauhan explained how HIV can spread through sharing syringes and mother to child transmission. Then there was an interactive session separately with girls and boys with the faculty their doubts were clarified during the sessions.

Celebration of Worlds AIDS Day, 1st December 2015; Day 2

Date: 03-12-2015

No. of Participants: 100 (Boys & Girls of IX & X class students)

Venue: Z.P.P.H.S at Dundigal

Time: 11:00 am

Smt Christiana, Principal, ZPPHS, Dundigal introduced the importance of awareness on HIV-AIDS to students. Dr. Prashant gave information on how HIV is transmitted by sexual route and blood transfusion and cleared the doubts. Dr. Varun and Dr. Shridevi continued the talk and explained how HIV can spread and how the youth can take precautions to prevent the transmission. This programme was covered by D.D. Yadagiri TV Channel.

